

WORKERS AT NEARBY MINES STILL LOYAL TO THEIR EMPLOYERS

Attempts to Effect a Walkout in Leisnering District Fail So Far.

ALL MINES RUNNING FULL

Colonial No. 1 at Smock Idle Today; One Jamison Mine at Star Junction Crippled, Other and Washington Run, Phosphate Operating Without a Break.

The portion of the Connellsville, or Old Basin, district of the coke region lying north of Uniontown, is still successfully resisting the attempts of the union organizers to bring the men out on a sympathy strike. The announcement has been made from time to time that a concerted and determined effort was to be made to cause breaks in the ranks of the workers at Leisnering Nos. 1, 2 and 3 and Trotter, four of the most important of the operations of the H. C. Frick Coal Company in this section. Thus far the attempts have failed, all of these plants running full today with a sufficient force of men at each to handle the day's output.

Within the past 10 days, or since the general strike was inaugurated, 200 additional ovens have been placed in blast at these plants, 25 at Leisnering No. 1, 75 at Leisnering No. 3 and 130 at Trotter. This brings the number of active ovens close to the available equipment at each plant, Leisnering No. 1 having 425, No. 2, 100, No. 3, 500 and Trotter 220 in daily operation.

The announcement came from union headquarters this morning that additional organizers are to be brought to the region for the purpose of making a drive in force on the plants still in operation. The main objective of this attack, it is said, is the Leisnering and Trotter section. It was reported that meetings were to be held at these plants last night but so far as known they failed to materialize.

The only additional defection of men in the southern end of the region reported this morning occurred at Colonial No. 1 plant of the H. C. Frick Coal Company at Smock. A full run was made Monday and Tuesday, with 286 ovens in blast, but last night the men who had been working declared they would not be on the job this morning.

Reports of car movement out of the Lower Connellsville show that yesterday's tonnage over the Pennsylvania lines declined from 314 cars on Monday to 256 cars yesterday. Coke gained from 256 cars on Monday to 234 cars yesterday. In the river section the conditions were relatively the same, Monday's movement having been 45 cars of coal and 92 cars of coke. Yesterday the record was 20 cars of coal and 106 cars of coke.

Organizers are working in the vicinity of Star Junction with a view to enlisting the support of the employees of the Washington Coal & Coke Company, the Jamison Coal & Coke Company. As the result of a meeting held yesterday afternoon about 100 men at one of the Jamison mines did not report for work this morning. Both mines are running today, however, one full and the other partially. Both plants of the Washington Coal & Coke Company are in normal operation today and without any defections from the ranks of their employees. A meeting is scheduled at the Star Junction this evening, the object of which is to try to induce all employees of both companies to join the ranks of the strikers.

The other plants affected are those of the Howard Coal Company, the Romney Coal Company and the Onelda Coal Company. The three get current from the Sagamore company.

The suspension had thrown about 500 men idle and reduced the valley output of coal by about 20 cars daily. The trouble to the generator was of such a character as to necessitate tearing it down to get at the cause.

WETS LOSE BUT CLAIM VICTORY IN NEW YORK

By Associated Press.
CORNING, N. Y., April 12.—Unofficial returns, complete for the 37th Congressional district today gave Lewis Henry, Republican, a plurality of 3,087 over Judge Frank Irvine, Democrat, of Ithaca in yesterday's special election. Prohibition was the dominant issue, Judge Irvine declaring for repeal of the Volstead Act and substitution of a measure which would legalize the sale of wines and beer.

The result was acclaimed by the wets as a victory for their side and an indication of changing sentiment on the prohibition question. They pointed to the reduced Republican plurality which in 1920 was nearly 30,000 and the fact that all four cities which had voted dry in local option in 1918 reversed themselves by giving plurality to Judge Irvine.

Hosfelt Backs Down on Charges Against Officers

Albert Hosfelt, who told Council on Monday night that Patrolman Andy Thomas had accepted $20 from six men in an automobile and had made no return of the same; also that Patrolman C. E. Humbertson was neglecting his duties, appeared at City Hall yesterday afternoon when the two officers were summoned for a hearing and admitted the charges were without foundation.

Although he first said he had been a witness to the transaction between Thomas and the automobile party, he finally admitted he had heard two men, strangers to him, talking of the matter on Brimstone corner. He brought forward W. T. Austin of Millstone avenue as a witness but the man said he did not know Hosfelt and never heard of the case until Hosfelt told him to appear at the mayor's office or he would send an officer for him.

Patrolman Thomas showed by police records that he was not in the vicinity of the district where the alleged transaction took place, his hours having been switched because he had attended court that day.

Hosfelt also admitted the charges against Humbertson were only hearsay and when he had apologized to both officers the case was dismissed.

B. B. SMITH HEAD OF CITY SCHOOLS NEXT FOUR YEARS

Board of Education Consumes Just a Minute in His Election.

CARROLL IS RE-ELECTED

Dunbar Man Starts Third Consecutive Term as Superintendent of Schools of County; R. K. Smith Re-elected Supt. in Dunbar Township.

The Board of Education of the Connellsville Public School District last night showed its appreciation of the work done by Bela B. Smith, who was elected to the unfinished term of Superintendent Stanley P. Ashe two years ago, when it unanimously re-elected the present head for the next term of four years, in less than a minute's time. There were no other applications for the position.

The board meeting was convened, the roll called and the application of Mr. Smith read. There being no other applicants, the vote was taken, it being unanimous. The session was adjourned at once, it being provided by law that the meeting be held solely for the purpose of the election of a superintendent. Every member of the board was present.

Mr. Smith has been in the Connellsville schools since 1916, coming here after teaching two years in Charleroi, following his graduation from Lafayette College in 1907. Three years after coming here he was made principal of the High School and held that position until he succeeded S. P. Ashe as superintendent when that educator resigned two years ago.

The present superintendent has watched the Connellsville High School grow from an institution with an enrollment of 227 to a plant of 1,100 students. The enrollment of the entire school district has grown likewise. The largest graduating class in the history of the city will be awarded diplomas this year. It will number around 170.

R. K. Smith was re-elected superintendent of the Dunbar Township Schools for four year term at Tuesday night's meeting of the board. He has been superintendent for the past three years and prior to that time was supervising principal of the township for 12 years. For the past 20 years he has been identified with educational work in the township, once being principal of a school at Vanderhill.

Dr. J. H. Allaman was re-elected superintendent of the Uniontown schools and R. E. Rudisill was re-elected in German township.

J. S. Carroll was re-elected county superintendent of schools, at a meeting of the directors of the county at the West End Theatre, Uniontown, Tuesday afternoon. He had no opposition. Mr. Carroll was voted an increase of $1,000 a year, bringing his salary to $5,000. Increases of $500 annually were voted to the assistants to the county superintendent, who will be named by Mr. Carroll at a later date. The present assistants are Miss Helen Carroll of Connellsville, James G. Robinson of Franklin township and John W. Harbaugh of Mill Run.

The law provides that the assistants shall not be named until 15 days have elapsed following the election of the county superintendent.

In starting upon his new four year term, Mr. Carroll will open his third consecutive four-year term of office as county superintendent of schools. He has held the office the longest of any other man in the history of the county schools.

Mr. Carroll was first elected to the position he now holds and to which he was re-elected in 1899 and served until 1905 when C. G. Lowellyn succeeded him. Mr. Carroll was appointed in 1913 to serve the seven months by the directors. At the election he was again elected for four years and has held the office since that time.

BOOSTER EFFORT ON IN BEHALF OF MT. PLEASANT FIRM

Citizens Asked to Assist in Financing Foundry Company.

PUBLIC MEETING CALLED

Special to The Courier
MOUNT PLEASANT, April 12—
Burgess William M. Overholt last evening called a meeting of the citizens and business men to take steps looking toward the setting of stock to further a project in town that will give work to about 100 men.

The meeting was held at the borough building and was presided over by the burgess. Stedro Brothers of this place, who now conduct a foundry on the Duncan plan in a small way, making small castings superior in quality to anything that has ever been made in or around the town would like to capitalize the plant at $20,000 and expand so that the firm could make larger castings.
The foundry would be known as the Westmoreland Casting Company.

A committee was appointed made up of F. S. Simpson, William Reus, C. A. Sherrick, Jesse Harris and James Olinger to call on the people and get their views on the matter and report at a meeting to be called on April 17.

Burgess Overholt is very desirous of going after the railroad at this time for the town. It was during his former term as burgess that railroad service was discontinued. It is the ambition of the town at this time to have the Southwest Branch go through Mount Pleasant and to Youngwood instead of around by Al-verton and Tarr.

Silver Medal Contest.
Mrs. C. K. Fox assisted by Mrs.
Myers, conducted a silver medal contest in the Reformed Church at Youngwood Monday evening with Mount Pleasant talent contest on the program. The contest was held in the afternoon under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. There were 10 contestants. Joseph Doval won the silver medal, the number he played being "The Last Rose of Summer."
Miss Edna Myers won the oratorical medal with the selection "The Two Offerings." Recitations were given by Misses Eleanor Springer and Evelyn Metz.

At Monday night's school board meeting the bills were paid but nothing else of importance was taken up.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty sickening griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects.
Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.

Methodists Win Title In Y. M. C. A. Basketball League; Reserves Second

Final Victory Over Bakers Decides Race for Championship.

FLOOR SEASON IS CLOSED

By James M. Driscoll
Sporting Editor

The Methodist Episcopal Church team won the championship of the Y. M. C. A. basketball league last night when it defeated the Favorite Bakers in the last regularly scheduled contest, thus avoiding a tie for first position with the runner-up, the Unity Fraternity Reserves. The first outfit won from the Baptists 16-26 in the first game but the victory did not bear fruit when the M. E. aggregation also finished on top. The Y. T. Baker score was 36-10.

The Reserves dropped several games during the latter half of the season when several players did not appear to complete the line-up and on other occasions when the team failed to get going. The M. E. team, who had been hovering in covered their stride in time to take the lead. They held a full game lead over the Fraternity. The Reserves however are in undisputed possession of second place.

The M. E. Baker game was hard fought. The Bakers had a one point lead at the end of the first half, the score being 18-17. This was overcome in the second half when the Baker guards relayed for only a moment allowing the catcher team two goals which eventually won the game.

St. Vincent Will Clash With Casey Outfit Once More

The Casey Club and St. Vincent Club will clash again tonight at the Parochial Hall but not for the City League honors. The St. Vincent team has already won that title and the Knights are out of the running so far as it is concerned. The purpose and the main reason for the match is to make a better showing than they did Monday night and in addition to give the St. Vincent Manager, William McConville, a very chance to prove his worthiness. Manager William McConville of the St. Vincent Club accepted the Casey challenge.

The game will be called at 8 o'clock. Walter Cuttill of Scottsboro will officiate.

The St. Vincent team has won three consecutive games from the Casey team, which ordinarily would be enough to prove superiority. The Casey outfit is looking something more than the ordinary standard of sportsmanship in accepting the challenge for the fifth clash as the Casey do not at all require it. The team is also meeting Casey on its own floor again when a demand to play at Leisegang would only be right.

Sponsor Girls Add Another Victory to Already Big String

The Sponsor Girls Club of Connelldale defeated the St. Vincent girls in a game at Leisegang last night, 27-6, adding another victory to its long string, all of which have been won by a margin of at least 20 points.

The local girls had things pretty much their own way in the first half which ended 21-3. The second half was hard fought, the St. Vincent guards tightening up and keeping down the Sponsor score. The home five scored a single field goal but A. Reilly shot well from the free line scoring four out of five attempts.

Set New Pace For Motor Car Industry

To a public that has become keenly discriminating, low prices are appealing only when allied to high quality.

This fact explains the interest in Chandler prices. These prove that resources, manufacturing skill and high ideals can build the exclusive, powerful, long lived car at a figure little above those for admittedly cheap cars. This is the most significant automobile development of 1922.

The Chandler Six is the lowest priced car of its style, size and power. There are bigger automobiles of larger bore and stroke, but they cost more in original investment, and their greater weight involves larger maintenance outlay.

The extraordinary success of the Chandler line has not been lost on competing manufacturers. They have been forced to a belated acceptance of the policy of lowest possible prices, adopted by Chandler and other foremost makers at the beginning of 1922.

Whether in the snappy touring types or in the luxurious closed models the Chandler Motor Car Company is now building the closest priced car it ever produced. It will continue to build for quality.

THE SOISSON.

"THE CHILD THOU GAVEST ME," the feature attraction today and tomorrow, is a First National picture, presenting a distinguished cast, including William Desmond, the popular actor. The story is one of great force and the picture is said to be one of the best filmed in many months. It illustrates the manner in which the savage inner man creeps to the surface under trying circumstances, notwithstanding the degree of refinement attained heretofore. One of the most interesting parts of the picture is the wedding scene. A small fortune was spent in making that set. Oriental rugs to the value of $20,000 and priceless pieces of furniture were used to give it the proper atmosphere. To make certain that all the details of the marriage would be correct, the producer obtained the assistance of a prominent Los Angeles minister, who spent a day at the studio, supervising the filming of the nuptials.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday "Star Dust," adapted from Fannie Hurst's famous story of the same name, will be shown. Hope Hampton appears in the stellar role and James Reenie, popular in the spoken drama, the husband of Dorothy Gish, plays opposite her. The story is one of strong emotions and is not without thrills as well as deft touches of humor. A vivid train wreck, in which the despicable Albert Penny is killed, provides one of the most gripping scenes in this production.

THE PARAMOUNT.

"THE BROADWAY BUCKAROO," the feature picture today and tomorrow, presents William Fairbanks in the stellar role. Bill Morris, a care-free son of Broadway, is cast off by his socially prominent father because of one of his "ridiculous escapades." Set adrift on his own resources, he finds himself in Chickasha, a little Montana ranch town, where he secures a job as a cowpuncher. A beautiful love springs up between Bill and the owner's daughter. Bill soon puts his only formidable rival out of the running, thereby incurring the intense hatred of the latter. One day while Bill and Ethel are riding, she is rendered unconscious by a fall from her horse when the animal bolts. Bill takes her to the house and then starts down the street at a mad pace. The doctor, as he starts off, the heavy ropes him off his horse, thereby starting a fight which is stopped shortly afterward by the sheriff, who deputizes the men in the crowd and forms a posse to track a gunman. Bill is frantic to get to the girl's side and, seizing the first opportunity, drops out of the posse and rides like the wind for the house. The heavy sees him and, after informing the sheriff, is appointed with two others to run him down and bring him in. Bill has at most made good his escape by jumping down a cliff when he is shot by the heavy and wounded, sufficiently to prevent him from continuing on his getaway and he is captured and placed in the calaboose.

THE ORPHEUM.

"THE CASE OF BECKY," with Constance Binney in the stellar role, is the feature picture today and tomorrow. "The Case of Becky" is an adaptation of the great Edward Locke story which was staged by David Belasco in New York. It was selected by Constance Binney herself, she playing the role of Dorothy Stone, the girl with a dual personality. The story, seemingly fantastic, is true in many of its details, having been written from a scientific treatise by Dr. Morton Prince, a Boston psychologist. The plot concerns a girl who is alternately controlled by two personalities, one good and the other evil. It is somewhat akin to "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," but is less weird and terrifying. Hypnosis forms the scientific background for the story and it is through this science that the heroine is brought back to her normal self. Chester M. Franklin, the director, used an exceptionally strong cast, including Montague Love, Frank McCannick, Glenn Hunter, Margaret Seldon and Jane Jennings. Friday and Saturday Alice Brady will be seen in "Dawn of the East."

See them smile, showing sparkling teeth which give evidence of careful attention to their dentifice. Nervous breakdowns, anemias, headaches, digestive troubles and many other common ailments are often traced to the diseased condition of the teeth and gums. Enjoy perfect health—watch your teeth. Save them by using the scientific dentifice, Mu-Sol-Dent.

It has only been a short time since the daily press carried the news that at the Mellon Institute of Industrial Research, an ideal dentifice had been perfected by Dr. C. C. Vogt, a specialist in dental chemistry. It saves the teeth and cleans them by the entirely new method of dissolving the slimy deposits on the teeth rather than by trying to grind them off with an abrasive. Exhaustive tests prove that Mu-Sol-Dent prevents the formation of tartar, stops irritation of the gums and makes them firm and healthy. All this is accomplished without injury either to the enamel or the delicate tissues of the mouth.

"But you're going to some time," I beamed him.

"I do not expect to."

I felt back in my chair, and I know I looked griefed and hurt and disappointed, as I almost sobbed.

"Oh, Father, and when I thought you were going to!"

"There, there, child! He spoke, stern and almost cross now. "This absurd nonsensical idea has gone quite far enough. Let us think no more about it."

"It isn't absurd and nonsensical!" I cried. And I could hardly say the words, I was choking up so. "Everybody said you were going to, and I wrote Mother so; and—"

"You wrote that to your mother?" He did jump from his chair this time.

"Yes; and she was glad."

"Oh, she was!" He sat down sort of lumpy-like and queer.

"Yes, she said she was glad you'd found an estimable woman to make a home for you."

"Oh, she did." He said this, too, in that queer, funny, quiet kind of way.

"Yes," I spoke, decided and firm. I'd begun to think, all of a sudden, that maybe he didn't appreciate Mother as much as she did him; and I determined right then and there to make him, if I could. When I remember all the lovely things she'd said about him—

"Father," I began; and I spoke this time, even more decided and firm. "I don't believe you appreciate Mother."

"Oh, What?"

He made me jump this time, he turned around with such a jerk and spoke so sharply. But in spite of the jump I still held on to my subject, firm and decided.

"I say I don't believe you appreciate my mother. You acted right now as if you didn't believe she meant it when I told you she was glad you had found an estimable woman to make a home for you. But she did mean it. I know, because she said it before, once, last year, that she hoped you would find one. Yes, and that isn't all. There's another reason why I know Mother always has—has your best interest at heart. She's tried to make me over into Mary before I came, so as to please you."

"She did what?" Once more he made me jump, he turned so suddenly, and spoke with such a short, sharp snap.

But in spite of the jump I went right on, just as I had before. Firm and decided, I told him everything—all about the cooking lessons, and the astronomy book we read an hour every day, and the pink silk dress I couldn't have, and the self-discipline. And how she said if she'd had self-discipline when she was a girl, her life would have been very different.

I talked very fast and hurriedly. I was afraid he'd interrupt, and I wanted to get in all I could before he did. But he didn't interrupt at all. He did not even stir until I said how at the last he bought me the homely show and the plain dark suit so I could go as Mary, and be Mary when Aunt Jane first saw me get off the train.

"And So You Came as Mary?"

When I said that, he dropped his hand and turned around and stared at me. And there was such a funny look in his eyes. Then he got up and began to walk up and down the piazza, muttering, "So you came as Mary, you came as Mary." Then, after a minute,

A Stunning Sweater

The popularity of the modern sweater, as indeed of all knitted outerwear, is based not only on its wide usefulness, but on the great variety of styles that are being created continuously. There seems to be no end to the variations produced in cut, color and material, for sweaters reflect every mode and fancy of Dame Fashion, and every change of season.

For the woman or girl who seeks something that reflects the spirit of spring, something characteristic of the awakening season, in lightness of weight, suitable color, and trimly cut, the sweater shown here fills the need.

It is a stunning example of the popular slipover with long sleeves. It has a herring-bone stitch with five horizontal staggered Roman stripes. There are turned-back cuffs, and the round neck is hand finished. The tape braid, fastened in two places at the back, lends an element of decoration with its tassel ends.

It is a simple, yet effective, design. There is nothing more chic. On lawn, porch, or at the seashore it fits in the picture, while all indications point to a deeply entrenched popularity at the country club, on tennis court, or golf links during the spring and summer.

thing I was saying and act as if he was just waiting for me to finish my sentence so he could go. And he did go, just as soon as I had finished my sentence. And after that, maybe, he wouldn't hardly speak to me again for a whole day.

And so that's why I say he's been so queer since that night on the piazza. But most of the time he's been lovely, perfectly lovely. And so has Cousin Grace. And I've had a beautiful time.

CANONCHET, THE SACHEM OF THE NARRAGANSETTS

THEY had told Canonchet that he must die.

"I like it well," replied the old sache of the Narragansetts. "I shall die before my heart is soft or I have said anything unworthy of myself."

Canonchet had good reason to bemoan the English. They had taken his father prisoner and turned him over to his enemies, the Mohegans, who had tortured him to death. When King Philip formed his confederation of New England tribes against the whites, Canonchet was sympathetic to the Narragansetts' cause, but he did not take the field immediately. The colonists suspected him, however, and demanded that he sign a treaty agreeing to give up to them any of King Philip's people who fled to him.

"I will," the sache indignantly replied. "Not a Wampanoag will I ever give up—no, not the paring of a Wampanoag's nail!"

So the colonists sent an army against Canonchet and on December 10, 1675, it struck the Narragansetts in their fortified town of Sunket-Squaw, it is. There Canonchet lost a third of his men, but with the remainder, he carried the war to the colonists with such fury that his name was second only to that of King Philip as a word of terror in New England.

Finally in April 1676, he was captured. The English offered him his life if he would help them against the hostile Indians, a proposal which was not with haughty silence and an indignant flash in his eyes. Next they offered to spare him if he would send orders to his people to make peace.

"I am a sache," declared Canonchet proudly. "You have no one here of equal rank, so I will not talk of peace."

"If you do not accept the terms offered, you will be put to death," he was told. "I would rather die than remain a prisoner," replied Canonchet. "I am a sache of the Narragansetts. My father killed my father. Let him kill me!"

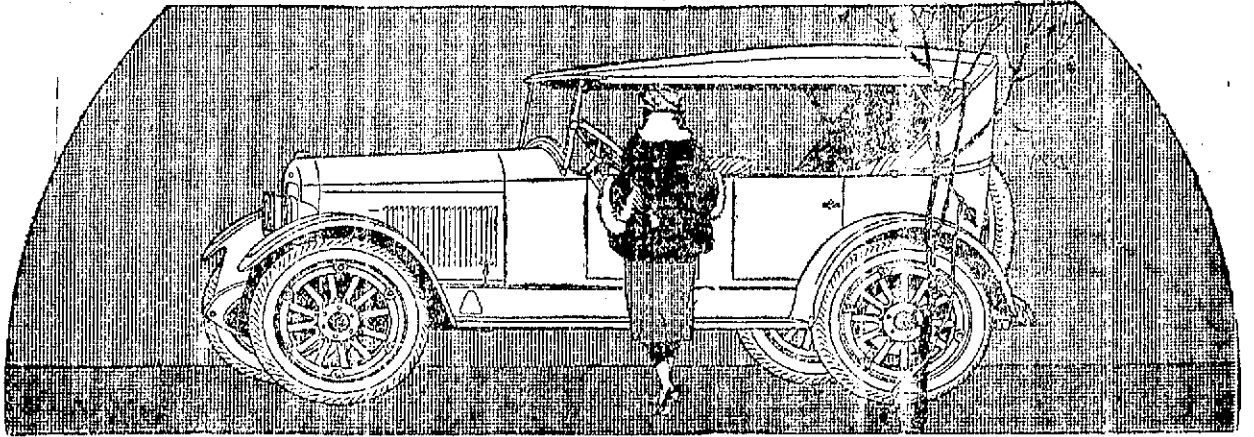

His request was denied. They took him in triumph to Stonington, Conn. As a reward to the friendly Indians, the Pequots were allowed to shoot him; the Mohegans to behead him, and the Narragansetts to burn him. As a return favor, the Mohegans presented his head to the English council at Hartford.

So Canonchet of the Great Heart came to the end of the trail.

The Jewett Is Here

The Price Is $1065

The New Jewett Light Six is now on exhibition in our show rooms.

To you, and everyone who is interested in motor cars, we extend a very cordial invitation to see this car and arrange for a demonstration.

And we do not hesitate to say in advance that you are going to be surprised, delighted and not a little mystified.

You are going to be surprised because the Jewett is all that you have imagined—and a great deal more.

You are going to be delighted because it is the very car that you have hoped for—and waited for—these many years.

You are going to be mystified because you will, for the first time, view a fine quality six at the price of a four.

To produce this car and sell it for $1065, f. o. b. Detroit has required years of study and all the ingenuity and resources of the Paige Engineering staff.

It would have been a simple matter to compromise on four cylinder construction and thus achieve a popular price. But mere price was not the aim and the Four can no longer be considered in terms of fine engineering.

This is the day of six cylinders because the six is an inherently balanced mechanism. The natural balance and overlapping power impulses mean, smooth, even, vibrationless riding qualities.

These, in turn, mean maximum economy because friction and vibration are the chief destructive agents in mechanics.

You have only to ride in the best four that was ever built to realize its fundamental imperfections.

The Four must "fight" to get under way. It delivers a series of vicious, stabbing blows on the crank shaft. In consequence, the entire car throbs and vibrates like a tuning fork.

How long, do you imagine, can any mechanism remain staunch and tight under such punishment?

Fours will "run," of course. But how do they run? And how much genuine satisfaction is there in the running?

Is it a nerve-racking chug-chug-chug or the soft, thrilling purr of overlapping impulses.

For these reasons, and many others, the New Jewett is a six with a mighty reservoir of fifty horse power.

It will sweep you over the road at sixty miles per hour, if you like, or amble along at three. And, at either pace, you will travel as sensible people want to travel—easily, smoothly, quietly.

In spite of its amazingly low price, the Jewett is a car of rare beauty, finish and appointment. It is a stinging rebuke to the common place designs of the popular priced field.

Best of all it is built as all Paige products are built to serve you faithfully and with deep respect for your pocket book.

But come in and see the Jewett for yourself. Come prepared to ride with us. For that is the one way that you can experience the thrill of commanding a fifty horse power six cylinder motor.

That is the one way that you can actually know and appreciate the Jewett.

YOUNG GIRLS NEED CARE

Mothers, watch your Daughters' Health

Health Is Happiness

From the time a girl reaches the age of twelve until womanhood is established, she needs all the care a thoughtful mother can give.

The condition that the girl is then passing through is critical, and may have such far-reaching effects upon her future happiness and health, that it is almost criminal for a mother or guardian to withhold counsel or advice.

Many a woman has suffered years of prolonged pain and misery through having been the victim of thoughtlessness or ignorance on the part of those who should have guided her through the dangers and difficulties that beset this period.

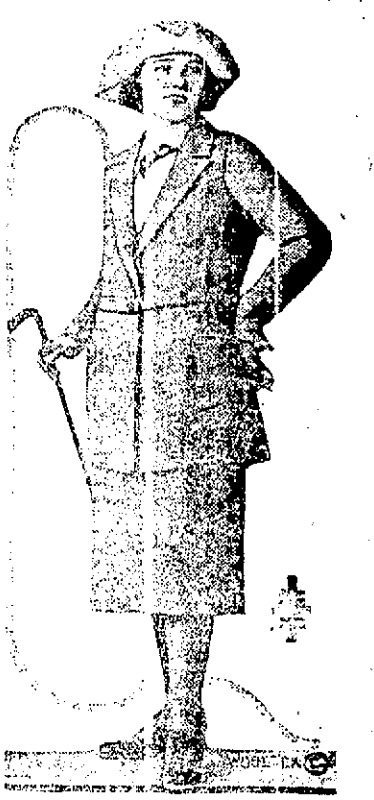

Mothers should teach their girls what danger comes from standing around with cold or wet feet, from lifting heavy articles, and from overworking. Do not let them over-study. If they complain of headache, pains in the back and lower limbs, they need another's thoughtful care and sympathy.
